

CELTIC LANDS

June 7 to 18, 2006

The ancient culture of the Celts comes alive on this journey to France, England, Ireland, Wales and Scotland. Embark on the M.S. LE DIAMANT in the historic port of Rouen and visit Normandy's most important landmarks, including the D-Day Beaches and the medieval Abbey of Le Mont-St-Michel. Cruise to the picturesque port of Fowey, England, then cross the Celtic Sea to Cork, Ireland for a tour that includes Honan Chapel and the Cobh Heritage Center. In Dublin, explore the Irish capital's literary and architectural heritage, and spend a day in North Wales, where you will visit beautifully landscaped Bodnant Gardens and majestic Caernarfon Castle. Your cruise concludes with three days in Scotland's ruggedly scenic Inner Hebrides and Orkney Islands. Throughout the program, expert guides and study leaders will provide insight and perspective. We also invite you to join a special two-night Paris prelude program featuring accommodations in the Hotel Ambassador and a two-night Edinburgh post-tour program with accommodations in the Sheraton Grand Hotel.
