

MS AMA VIDA

Ama Waterways

Proudly celebrating more than 21 years on the river, family-owned and operated AmaWaterways was founded in 2002 by three families. Their focus: attention to detail, constant innovation and a culture of always making guests their top priority. Ama believes in the luxury of more – more ways to discover, more ways to indulge and more onboard amenities. With an award-winning fleet, critically acclaimed dining and a variety of authentic included excursions, Ama wants to turn every mile of your journey into a cherished memory.

About MS Ama Vida

Timeless elegance spills from the decks of AmaVida as the ship cruises along Portugal's Douro River. Most staterooms feature balconies from which to enjoy views of terraced vineyards, as well as deluxe hotel-style bedding and spacious bathrooms. AmaVida's passionate chefs will treat you to exquisite, locally-sourced cuisine paired with unlimited local wine—and the region's signature Port—as well as beer and soft drinks with lunch and dinner in the Main Restaurant.

In-Depth Exploration

Enjoy memorable and engaging shore excursions in beautiful locales, designed to delight and inspire, throughout your cruise.

Delectable Cuisine

All onboard meals are included in your cruise fare. All meals are served a la carte. Dinner is a multi-course meal with a choice of delicious entrées, including a vegetarian option. All meals are skillfully prepared by European chefs and consist of continental cuisine made with fresh, locally sourced ingredients whenever possible. Wine, beer and soft drinks are included with lunch and dinner.

Dress Code for Dinner

On river cruises, dinners are typically more informal than on ocean cruises, so a dressed-up version of casual looks would be appropriate. For women, this includes a dress, or a blouse or sweater and skirt or dressy slacks. For men, this attire can include a sport coat, dress shirt, button-down shirt, open-collar or collared polo shirt and dress pants (no tie required). For the Captain's Night/Farewell Dinner, you may want to dress a little more formally.

Impeccable Service

The professional and friendly crew goes above and beyond to ensure you have a memorable experience.

Currency

The euro is the official currency on board the ship. American Express, MasterCard and Visa are also accepted.

Smoking Policy

MS Ama Vida has a nonsmoking policy. Smoking is permitted only on the Sun Deck, Aft, in designated areas.
